Mrs. Joseph L. Bowen.

One of the prominent women who will march in the Chicago suffrage parade on June 7 is Mrs. Joseph L. Bowen, who was responsible for the establishment of the juvenile court in Chicago and the various courts that grew out of it, such as the court of domestic relations, the morals court, and the girls' court. She was instrumental in securing the investigation of public dance halls and in prohibiting the sale of liquor in them, and her work for suffrage has been extremely active.

WORSLEY SEES ONE SIDED CONDITION

Former State Senator A. A. Worsley of Pima county sees a distorted condition of affairs in the land, the preparedness for defense idea having outgrown the national core for its internal welfare. In a statement made last evening, Mr. Worsley said:

"Almost all the small mines in the state have had to shut down for want of a place to get their ores smelted. The big smelter trust says we cannot receive your ores. Arizona is the greatest mining state in the world. Yet here we are on our knees to the big fellows, without a weapon of defense. If the state had a good smelter all the prospectors and small producers could operate and get seven cents per pound more for their copper."

"We are to build an armor plate factory, at a cost of millions to make armor plate to equip battleships to powder men. Why not build a state or national smelter to defend our industries from such robberies as are now taking place in Arizona."

"I tried to have the state build one two years ago. If we had it in operation now it would mean millions to the people of Arizona."

"Hundreds of millions for preparedness to defend against all foreign enemies, who never did harm to us, but nothing for preparedness against domestic tyrants and enemies who plunder and rob us every day. What kind of preparedness are we for? Life is a hummer because we make it so and imposture has always worn a crown."

VILLA'S HIDING PLACE?

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

COLUMBUS, N. M., May 28.—Little credence is placed by military authorities here in reports from Chihuahua that Carranza troops have discovered Villa in hiding near Jimenez. Several officers here today express their conviction that Villa is still alive, but asserted that General Pershing, the expeditionary commander, is in possession of information as to the probable whereabouts of the bandit chief, which does not coincide with that of Gen. Trevino. No details of General Pershing's reports could be obtained here however.

END OF PURSUIT

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

EL PASO, May 28.—Two troops of the Eighth cavalry, commanded by Major Gen. T. Langhorne, returned to their station at Fort Bliss here today, after pursuing into Mexico the bandits who raided Glenn Springs, Texas several weeks ago. Military men here said the arrival of the troops marks the close of that complication in the Mexican situation.

MAYOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Head of City Government Calls Upon Citizens of Phoenix to Join With Organizations and Observe Memorial Day

Mayor Corbstein yesterday issued an official proclamation calling upon the people of Phoenix to do their share in fittingly observing Memorial Day.

The proclamation is as follows: WHEREAS, the 30th day of May, by the law of the State has been made a public holiday, and by general usage and custom, in this and other states, has come to be universally observed as a day of remembrance of those who have given their lives for their country:

NOW THEREFORE, I Peter Corbstein, mayor of the city of Phoenix, do hereby recommend and proclaim to all our citizens, in recognition of the patriotic spirit that has instituted Decoration Day as one of our great National holidays, to observe the day by decorating the graves of our patriotic dead and by participating in the exercises and ceremonies incident thereto and particularly those that shall be conducted by the old soldiers of the Civil War, and by the veterans of the Spanish American War.

Done at the office of the mayor, this 27th day of May, 1916.

PETER CORBSTEIN, Mayor.

From all appearances, tomorrow will undoubtedly be one of the most memorable of Memorial days in Phoenix. The various veteran organizations of the city with their auxiliaries, have been working hard to the end that the comrades, who have gone beyond might be fittingly remembered.

A parade will be held in the morning, starting at about 9:30. It is planned to carry the aged veterans of the Civil War in autos, donated by local citizens.

The Spanish War veterans, with their auxiliary will be in the line of parade.

The three companies of militia which have heretofore taken part in the annual parade on Memorial day will be missed. But the fact that they are serving their country on the border, makes their absence excusable.

Nineteen others, the dispatch says, were sentenced to terms of imprisonment.

PINEAPPLE RECIPES

Do not try to peel the pineapple whole, this is a common mistake of Northerners, says Riley M. Fletcher, Berry in that well-known culinary guide, "Fruit Recipes." First slice it across, and then it will be found an easy matter to remove the rind and the eyes from each slice.

Salad

Mix one cup tart chopped pineapple with a shredded grape-fruit, and half a cup of chopped nuts or celery. Add fresh or some form of reserved cherries, and serve on lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

Mousse

Place in a saucepan with one cup of grated pineapple, half a cup of sugar, one-fourth cup of water and simmer for five minutes. Add juice of half a lemon, take from fire, cool, stir in one cup of whipped cream or one-fourth cup of gelatine (dissolved in one-fourth cup of water) pack the mould around with ice and let stand two hours.

Marmalade

Use perfectly ripe, sweet pines, slice and pare, then cut into sweet pieces. Allow three-fourths pound of sugar to each pound of fruit, mix in granite or porcelain bowl, and let stand overnight in cool place (preferably on ice). In the morning remove from ice and cook gently for one hour. At the end of this time press through a potato-crusher or coarse sieve with a potato masher. Replace on stove and cook for half an hour longer, until clear and golden in color and it curls stiffly and gently when finger is thrust through it, then place in little pots.

Frozen Custard

Add to a quart of milk a tea-cup of sugar and bring to a boil. Add four well-beaten eggs, and let the mixture thicken, watching carefully however, that the mixture does not again boil. Let this cool, then add one pint of pineapple juice or one pint of grated pineapple and freeze. A little lemon juice will bring out the fruit flavor.
